BENEFITS

Knowledge

E-Newsletter: The source for local and national information that impacts your business, as well as companies and leaders on the move.

Growth and Mobility Luncheon: Keep up to date on recent business expansions, transportation, and relocations in Richardson.

Broker and Developer Series: Platform to better understand and market the Richardson business environment, learn about real estate topics, and establish key contacts.

Connection

Leaders After Hours: Gather with other C-Level, VPs, and directors to gain insight about important issues and build long-lasting relationships.

Non-Profit Fair: Find volunteer opportunities, ways to connect, and give back to the community.

Richardson Business Network Breakfast: Weekly get together with local businesses to help grow your personal and professional connections every Wednesday morning at 7:15 am.

Growth

Leadership Richardson: An inclusive, unique opportunity that strives to grow leaders who can cross divides, build bridges, and solve complex issues whether in their communities, volunteer activities, or workplaces. The 9-month program explores all aspects of the community, including arts, culture, diversity, business and economic development, government, health and wellness, public education, public safety, social services and more while growing problem-solving skills of participants.

Member Connections: Quarterly Happy Hour series networking with other members with appetizers and drinks.

Wellness Summit: Annual event each fall showcasing area providers and resources for medical services, mental health, fitness, and lifestyle.

COMMITTEES

Your engagement in Chamber activities will maximize your investment and make a positive impact in Richardson and the community.

Ambassadors are member volunteers who provide a valuable service to our organization by maintaining a strong connection with our members. Ambassadors develop business relationships and maintain networking that strengthens the Chamber.

Public Policy The public policy committee sets the legislative agenda for the Chamber and plans Legislative Day Event and DC Fly-in, and hosts the Public Policy lunch series, which briefs our members on legislative issues at the local, state, and federal level.

Small Business Community Committee plans a variety of events and activities committed to support the growth and success of small local businesses. The committee will also provide a forum to discuss issues that affect them, providing insights to support business owners.

Golf Classic is one of the longest running Chamber of Commerce tournaments in the area and is held annually in the fall. The golf classic attracts business executives and civic leaders for an enjoyable round of golf and networking.

Richardson Young Professionals is a young professional development program aimed at engaging an emerging group of up-and-coming Richardson Leaders, ages 45 and younger, serving the community and committed to personal growth and career advancement. They also host the annual bowling tournament and monthly happy hours.

Women in Leadership (WIL) was formed to inspire, influence and champion women as they grow into their roles as business leaders in the community. The WIL committee organizes both quarterly luncheons with speakers that focus on leadership skills and successful business strategies, and evening networking events aimed at learning about Richardson and broadening networks.

Workforce Development promotes excellence in education and develops programs to encourage business support at all levels of education.

Marta Gomez Frey, Director
Collin Small Business Development Center

"The Richardson Chamber of Commerce consists of multi-talented leaders that seek to improve the growth of Richardson and beyond. We've belonged to the Chamber for years because it offers like-minded organizations a chance to network, learn and connect. I appreciate that the Chamber encourages community involvement and is devoted to the sustainable success of our business community. Investment in the area is at the forefront of everything they do and we too are committed to supporting North Texas businesses."
