

RICHARDSON AND DALLAS BUSINESS LEADERS:

Don't miss this unique opportunity to experience school leadership in Richardson ISD!

- Shadow a campus principal
- Engage with students, teachers, and staff
- Gain firsthand insight into public school leadership

RISD Principal for a Day is a community engagement initiative in partnership with the Richardson Chamber of Commerce where business leaders, community members, and other stakeholders are invited to experience the role of a school principal for a day. The program is designed to build relationships between schools and the community, giving participants firsthand insight into the successes and challenges of school leadership.

Why Participate?

- Strengthen connections between schools and the community
- Support education and future leaders
- Experience the rewards of public school leadership
